It has been thought that, at every opportunity to cojoy an intellectual treat, our city exhibits the most lamentable apathy on the subject, but this occasion afforded a pleasant exception to the rule.

He spoke of the Bible-women of the mission, who are filling a place and doing a work unatto the women of China, and in this sphere of labor, their usefulness cannot be over-estimated. The pages of history and romance hardly afford more heroic pictures than may be found in some cases among this class. One of them, particularly, is a gifted young lady of Albemarle county, Va., eminently fitted to grace the refined surroundings of luxurious case. With a single-hearted devotion, untinged by fanaticism, Mis, Lottie Moon has consecrated herself to the work.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY. - The weather yesterday was clear, bright and warm and large congregations were present at most of the churches. Rev. Mr. Estill preached in Christ Church in the evening, Rev. Mr. Waller in the 1st Presbyterian Church in the morning and Rev. Dr. Tupper in the Baptist Church morning and night. With these exceptions the pulpits were filled with the resident clergy. The following is a report of the work done during the day by the Young Men's Christian Association:

The Alms House services were again largely attended, and a large committee were at work, with the most interesting exercises. At the Jail a committee were at work. They report a good meeting.

The Sunday afternoon prayer meeting in the First Presbyterian Church was well attended, with the usual stirring exercises. The speakers were very earnest in their remarks to the unconverted present. This meeting will be held next Sunday in the Second Presbyterian Church.

L. B. TAYLOR, Esq -- Eisewhere in to-day's Gazette will be found a notice of the death of Lawrence Berry Taylor, esq., of this city. During a life cut off in its maturity, yet full of the marks of the enduring esteem and confidence of his fellow citizens, Mr. Taylor has filled nearly every prominent position in this community it was in the power of his fellow cirizens to bestow upon him. The offices of Commonwealth's Attorney, Delegate to the General Assembly, President of the Board of Aldermen, Mayor of the city were all filled by him at different periods, and filled well. During the late war he was one of the most energetic and efficient officers of the Quartermaster's Department, and was appointed by President Davis, a colonel, at the request of Gen. R. E. Lee, whose complimentary letter, urging Mr. Taylor's appointment, is one of the heir looms of his family.
